Use of training module content

Dear Sir or Madam,

The B&R Automation Academy training modules are used to learn how to work with B&R systems. B&R Industrial Automation GmbH does not assume any liability for their contents.

In addition to use in the training courses and seminars offered by the B&R Automation Academy, these documents may also be used for training and further education at public research and educational institutions.

For teaching purposes, employees of these institutions are permitted to use these documents in whole or in part, to reproduce them and to quote them when naming the source. This applies to drawings and images as well as texts. Drawings and images from third parties are marked accordingly. These are only permitted to be used according to the license conditions for the original source.

In this case, the user is responsible for ensuring that the information is up to date. This person is obligated to regularly ensure that the information is correct and up-to-date and to adapt this information if necessary.

All rights reserved, infringements will be prosecuted.

Commercial use of these documents is prohibited.

Exceptions to the regulations described above require written approval.

Best regards,

B&R Industrial Automation GmbH
